

Licia Soncini

President of NOMOS Centro Studi Parlamentari

President of Nomos Laboratorio di Politiche Sanitarie

She is a founding partner of "NOMOS Centro Studi Parlamentari" - a consulting firm specialized in Public Affairs and Lobbying – and President since 1991.

Before assisting pharmaceutical clients dealing with political and legislative consulting activities, she has assisted NOMOS clients in the energetic field since the privatization of the State-participated companies (Edison, Unione Petrolifera, Total, Gestore Mercati Energetici – company managing the Electricity Market - Assogas, Assogas)

At the end of 2013, she founded NOMOS Laboratorio di Politiche Sanitarie - a consulting firm specialized in research and communication in the field of Health policies, focusing on projects of sustainable development.

She has been lecturer of "Information and Publicity of Parliamentary works", at the Master in Lobbying and Institutional Relations organized by the Luiss Management School and lecturer in Lobbying and Institutional Relations at the training school "Eidos".

Previously, she gained experience in a parliamentary group (1985-1989) and then she worked as Head of Government and Parliamentary Relations of the Ferruzzi-Montedison Group (1989-1994), where she took part to the drafting of the Law on Denationalization of the Energy sector.

From 2004 to 2007, he was managing director of Strainvest-Ru, a consulting company for the internationalization of the Italian companies' projects in Russia.

From 2014 to 2017, she was President of Nomos Laboratory of Health Policies.

In May 2016, she was elected at the Board of Iren Spa.

She graduated with honors in Cultural Anthropology at the University "La Sapienza" of Rome (1986) and she received (1990) the Diploma of Legal Advisor from the Higher Institute of Legislative Studies.

She attended the following courses organized by Assogestioni and Assonime:

“Induction Session for independent directors and statutory auditors in relation to the new Corporate Governance Code ”(2013)

“Induction Session - Follow up. The Responsibilities of Directors and Statutory Auditors in listed Companies” (2016)

“Induction Session – Follow up. The Responsibilities of the Members of the Corporate Bodies (May 2017)

“Induction Session – Follow up. Sustainability and Governance of the company” (May 2018)

“Induction session - Follow up: the Responsibilities of the members of the Corporate Bodies” (October 2018)