Information regarding the share capital on the date of call of the General Meeting

The Company's share capital consists of 825,783,990.00 ordinary voting shares with a par value of EUR 1.00 each (excluding treasury shares, which currently total 9,138,071).

Right to attend General Meeting and exercise voting rights

The only persons who can attend and vote at General Meetings are those that are entitled to vote in accordance with a notification sent to the Company by a person that identifies himself/herself as an "intermediary" in accordance with applicable laws. The notification is issued by the "intermediary" in accordance with records at the close of business on 10 April 2017, i.e., the seventh stock exchange trading day preceding the date set for the General Meeting on single call (the "Record Date"), in compliance with Article 83-sexies of Legislative Decree 58 of 24 February 1998 (the "Consolidated Finance Act", or "CFA").

Any deposits in and withdrawals from accounts subsequent to the Record Date will have no effect on a person's right to vote at General Meetings. Therefore, persons who are registered as having title to shares only subsequent to the Record Date will have no right to attend or vote at the General Meeting.

Notifications by the intermediary must arrive no later than 18 April 2017, i.e., the close of business on the third stock exchange trading day preceding the date set for the General Meeting on single call. The right to attend and vote at General Meeting, however, will be valid provided that the Company receives the relevant notice no later than the start of the General Meeting.

Shareholders who still hold share certificates in paper form are required to provide the intermediary these share certificates for entry into the centralised paperless share certificate system and apply for the issuance of the above notification.

The Chairperson's office will be open two hours prior to the time set for the General Meeting, at the venue of the General Meeting, to verify the attendees' identity and right to attend.

Proxies

All holders of rights to vote that are entitled to attend the General Meeting can appoint a representative through a written proxy, subject to the limitations provided by the laws in force. To do so, these holders of rights can use the proxy form available for download and printing from the Company's website (<http://www.atlantia.it/en/investors/general-meetings.html>).

Proxy holders so appointed can, instead of providing the original form, fax a copy to +39 (0)6-45417450, send an electronic version by certified email to atlantia@pecserviziotitoli.it, or upload the form to the appropriate section of the Company's website (<http://www.atlantia.it/en/investors/general-meetings.html>), attesting under their own responsibility to the conformity of the copy with the original and to the identity of the holder of the right. Under the laws in force, proxy holders must retain the original of the form and any voting instructions received for one year after the end of the General Meeting.

The Appointed Representative within the meaning of Article 135-undecies of the Consolidated Finance Act

Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Company, in accordance with Article 135-undecies of the CFA, has appointed Computershare S.p.A. with registered office in Via Mascheroni 19, Milan, as the Appointed Representative. Persons with voting rights can grant a proxy providing voting instructions to the Appointed Representative on all or some agenda items by 19 April 2017, i.e., the close of business on the second stock exchange trading day preceding the date set for the General Meeting on single call.

The proxy must be granted to the Appointed Representative according to the procedures and using the relevant form available on the Company's website at <http://www.atlantia.it/en/investors/general-meetings.html>.

The proxy is not effective for items for which voting instructions have not been issued.

The proxy and voting instructions can be revoked within the same terms and at the same conditions applied to their granting.

Right to ask questions

All holders of voting rights can also submit questions on agenda items before the General Meeting and up to three days before the General Meeting held on single call (i.e., on 18 April 2017) and answers will be provided no later than during the General Meeting. The Company can provide a collective answer to questions on the same subject. The Company is not required, however, to respond to questions which can be found in the "Questions and Answers" section on the Company's website.

Questions must be sent to the Company through the relevant section on the Company's website at <http://www.atlantia.it/en/investors/general-meetings.html>, by fax to +39 (0)6-43634260, or by email to the certified email address atlantia@pecserviziotitoli.it.

All persons asking questions must provide details of their identity.

Right to add General Meeting agenda items and to submit new resolution proposals

Shareholders, whether separately or collectively, representing one fortieth of the share capital can ask to add items to the agenda by indicating the subject matter in their request, or submit resolution proposals regarding matters already on the agenda, within 10 days of the publication of this notice in accordance with Article 126-bis of the Consolidated Finance Act. Applications must be submitted in writing accompanied by evidence of voting rights, by fax to +39 06 43634360 or by email to the certified email address atlantia@pecserviziotitoli.it.

No agenda items can be added concerning matters for which the General Meeting is required by law to deliberate, based on a proposal, project or report put forward or prepared by the Board of Directors, other than those listed under Article 125-ter, paragraph 1 of the Consolidated Financial Act.

More information on these rights and their exercise can be obtained from the Company's website mentioned above.
